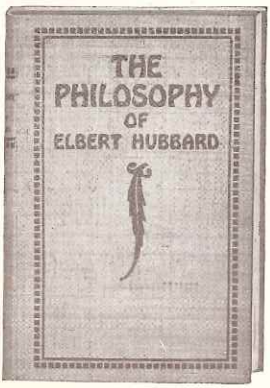
The Archives
$5.00

A book which will hold secret all the valuable data—records—travelog—marriages—deaths—births—christenings and the thousand and one intimate, precious and valuable items you treasure.

The loose-leaf construction has been followed and between each leaf a stout stub has been inserted to allow for further pages to be added. The capacity of The Archives is limited only by the length of the leathern thong tie, and even that can be easily renewed.

The design is a modernistic one—not blatant nor bizarre—in rich and harmonious tones of brown, ivory and blue set off with bronze border and title.



The Philosophy of Elbert Hubbard

Elbert Hubbard's mind did not merely mark time—it marched. This book mirrors his progressive thought and actuating motives. It is a glimpse into the heart of Elbert Hubbard. Half-leather binding $2.50

Abe Lincoln and Nancy Hanks

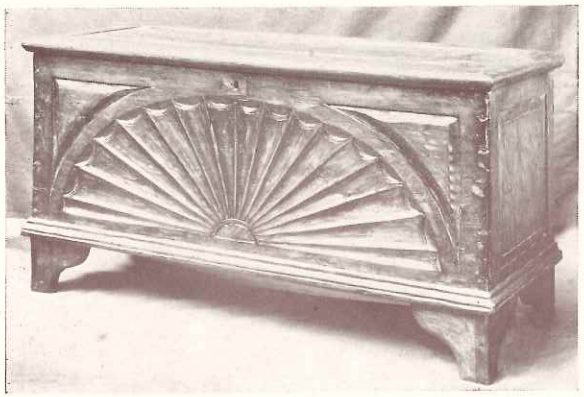
Lynette's Discovery

An Antique French Coffee Table

A year or so ago, when Lynette Hubbard was in Paris, living with an Old French Family, she discovered in the House an odd-little, old-little, French Coffee Table. She tried to buy it but the Family would not sell, so the thing to do was to find its duplicate.

She searched Paris in vain, until finally one day on the wrong side of the Seine, in a musty little Shop she found exactly the table she was looking for. She packed it up and brought it Home with her and we reproduced it and here it is! Round-topped, with two drop-leaves and hand-carved legs, made of mahogany. Measures 22¾ inches high and 24 inches table diameter—a four-person accommodation size. Price $25.00

Roycroft Carved-Wood Chests



This old chest was brought in, in rather dilapidated condition. It was painted red, and it was much the worse for wear, but we repaired it and carved it until now it 's a perfect gem of the cabinet-maker's and carver's art.

Largely the wood governs the design.

In this instance the wood was Old Pine—and we selected the Sun-burst design as especially fitting, and the finished work justifies the selection.

It is priced at $85.00, and there is but one!

21 x 10½ x 9½ inches
Price $40.00

Charles S. Hall is in charge of the Roycroft Carving of Chests, and he has spent more than forty years at this kind of work, therefore he ought to know how to do it, and he does. His carving is exquisite, just about perfect.

We will Carve any sort of Old Wooden Box for you and make it into a Hope Chest, a Linen Chest or a Treasure Chest, and we will do the work as well as we know how!

Of the Old Chests that come to us to carve less than half of them were made in the U. S. A. They are the old traveling trunks of a generation or more ago, that have found their way into attics and are resurrected to give us the chance to beautify them!

All the carving designs are original—either straight-forward formal designing, or depicting odd scenes from the countryside, or scenes of Pioneer days, such as a log-cabin, a team of oxen pulling stumps, or a woman sitting at a Spinning Wheel beside a fireplace.

You can have the design you desire, of say Old Roman Galleys, or perhaps a Viking scene of ships blowing down the wind—or a Moonlight scene with the moon showing on the water, all worked out in wood, remarkable in detail.

No copies, but all in original designs.

You can have what you want at no extra cost.

Some of the chests that come to us are common Tool Chests, and some are Norwegian Sailor Chests—Chests of all sizes! They are made of Cherry, Walnut, Mahogany, Oak and Old Pine.

But each is given individual treatment and each is beautified beyond your imagination!

After the wood-of-the-chest is carved we select a finish appropriate for that piece—a finish which will bring out the beauty of the original wood!

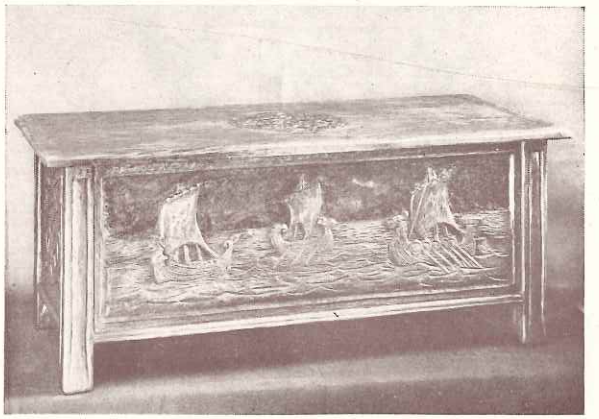
One brings colorings out of this old wood, that one could never bring out of new wood!

No matter in what a condition your old chest may be—send it in! Either suggest a design, or preferably leave it to us, and we 'll do the right thing!

Only don't delay as the work is piling up, and we have only so many hands with which to work!

We 'll endeavor to ship your finished chest to you within two weeks' time (approximately) after receipt of the same!

We have Old and New chests on sale at Roycroft.



An old sea captain owned this chest at one time. The Roycrofters have preserved the sentiment. You get the tang of the sea! It measures 48 x 20 x 17 inches.
